

What are You Doing with Your Life?

Residential Student Program
One Year Work-Study Program

Krishnamurti Educational Center
Ojai , CA

The Residential Student Program at the KEC is for those who want to explore Krishnamurti's teachings in a communal setting. Studying Krishnamurti's teachings means giving one's time and energy to careful examination of the issues and questions raised. This program provides the necessary forum for such study and inquiry. There is time for dialogue and discussion with the community and for personal study using text, video and audio recordings. Students work alongside staff and assist in various areas on campus, including caring for the land and assisting at the guest retreat.

True Revolution is not of the violent sort; it comes about through cultivating the integration and intelligence of human beings who, by their very life, will gradually create changes in society. -Krishnamurti
